Ms. Van Saun:

Thank you for your email seeking the status of your request. We are still processing your request along requests received prior to your request which also potentially involve a voluminous amount of records. At this time, I do not have the total volume of responsive records. When I am back in the office on tomorrow, I will consult with our Attorney Advisor to determine the next steps in conducting an electronic console search; after speaking with him, I will update you within the next few days. If you would like to speak in further detail to discuss your request, please let me know and we can arrange a time to speak and further discuss your request.

Ms. Smith,

I would like an update on this FOIA request. Back in May you indicated there would be additional records in the next few weeks. I have not received the additional documents, and would appreciate their release as soon as possible and an update on the total volume of responsive records.

Best regards,

Amy van Saun

Ms. Van Saum:

We are continuing to process your request and searching for responsive records. Prior to release of any records, the records must be reviewed for any exemptions applicable under FOIA. We anticipate having additional records within the next few weeks. I will be out of the office next week and will return on May 31. Upon my return to the office, I will update you on the status of any records for release. In the interim, if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.
